Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, preseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Pearl's best achievement, in her children's eyes, is that she is an outstanding mother, who made many things possible for them by helping them to set their sights beyond what they could see, and for giving them that little push they needed to attain their goals; and,

WHEREAS, Pearl Selvig Boe has reached her 80th birthday, an occasion of joy and celebration; and,

WHEREAS, Pearl Selvig Boe has given much to South Dakota during her lifetime and it is fitting that we honor Pearl on this momentous occasion; and,

WHEREAS, Pearl is a true friend of the underdog, underprivileged, young and old alike; and,

WHEREAS, Pearl has developed, out of a wasteland in the 30's, a magnificent yard which, next to her family, is her greatest love; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Pearl Louise Selvig's years as a productive and outstanding citizen of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 17, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and relatives in wishing Pearl a very happy birthday and many more years of health and happiness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
